THE NEVADA STATE TREASURER INVITES FAMILIES TO THE RENO KIDS KITE FESTIVAL

Carson City, NV – The Nevada State Treasurer's Office invites Reno families to Rancho San Rafael Park on Saturday, June 11 for the 2016 Reno Kids Kite Festival. The Nevada State Treasurer's Office is the title sponsor for this year's Reno Kids Kite Festival, and will be giving away kites to the first 1,000 visitors. Families will be able to open a college savings account on site, and Sage the College Savings Tortoise mascot will be available for pictures.

"The Reno Kids Kite Festival will be a fun and educational day for the whole family," said Dan Schwartz, Nevada State Treasurer. "Learn about college savings and even open an account with us while also participating in some fun games and exciting kite flying."

The 2016 Reno Kids Kite Festival is a fun, free event for Reno families. Attendees can bring their own kites or buy one on-site (or receive a free one from The Nevada State Treasurer's Office if they are among the first 1,000 visitors!), see stunt kite-flying demonstrations, enjoy lunch from numerous food vendors along with kids' games and activities.

The 2016 Reno Kids Kite Festival will be held Saturday, June 11 from 11:00am to 4:00pm at Rancho San Rafael Regional Park. The media is invited to attend the event.
